

Contents

IRINA BRITTNER, SABINE N. MEYER, AND PETER SCHNECK
Introduction	vii

The Social and Historical Reality of Rights in the U.S.

LETI VOLPP
Refugees Welcome?	3

BLAIR L. M. KELLEY
Unabated Protest: American Citizenship and African American Resistance to Jim Crow Segregation	43

SUSAN HERMAN
On Balancing Liberty and National Security	63

MICHAEL DREYER
Civil Rights from the Bench? The U.S. Supreme Court between Originalism and the Living Constitution	83

CURD BENJAMIN KNÜPFER
Technological Innovation and Bottom-Up Democracy: Acknowledging the Crises and Re-Affirming the Research Agenda	105

Literature and the Question of Rights

CHAD LUCK
Debt Reckoning: Equity, Property, Bartleby	123

KATRIN HORN
Right or Obligation? Privacy in Henry James' The Bostonians	137

JULIUS GREVE
Ventriloquism Against the Copyright of the Concept: Authorial Suspension and Modernist Performativity	157
SEBASTIAN HERRMANN
Law as Algorithm: Legal Discourse, the Data Imaginary and the 1839 American Slavery as It Is	175
INA BATZKE
Contesting Traditional Imaginaries of Citizenship: José Ángel N.'s Illegal: Reflections of an Undocumented Immigrant	195
KERSTIN KNOPF
The Gendered Prison: Female Bodies and the Carceral Space in American Women's Prison Literature	211
 Negotiating Rights in Popular Culture
KATJA KANZLER
Female Lawyer Figures in Contemporary TV Legal Drama: Embodiment and Gender in Figurations of the Legal Process	233
JOSEF RAAB
The Disenfranchised Latin@ Alien in The X-Files and Beyond	249
INGRID GESSNER
Picturing Ebola: Photography as an Instrument of Biopolitical (In)Justice	273
MIRJA BEUTEL
The Sopranos and Minority Rights: A Cosmopolitan Approach for the EFL Classroom	291
Contributors	309