

Contents

ULLA HASELSTEIN, FRANK KELLETER, ALEXANDER STARRE, BIRTE WEGE Introduction: American Counter/Publics	9
---	---

Section I Constructions of the Public Sphere

SARAH E. IGO Thinking Publics: The History of a Promise and a Problem	21
--	----

LAURA BIEGER Learning from Hannah Arendt; or, the Public Sphere as a Space of Appearance and the Fundamental Opacity of the Face-to-Face	37
--	----

KAY M. LOSEY Political Tweets as Infotainment: The Decline of Public Discourse in the United States	53
---	----

Section II Mobilizing Dissent

CATHERINE R. SQUIRES Generating Creative Friction: Counter-Narratives and Ethical Imaginaries at Home in Black Counterpublics	71
---	----

CARMEN DEXL Navigating the Line between Consent and Dissent: Josephine Baker as a Cultural Icon, International Star, and Social Activist	87
--	----

HANNAH SPAHN Public Feeling in Ida B. Wells's Anti-Lynching Campaign	103
---	-----

ANNE NASSAUER Documenting Dissent: US Mainstream Media Reports versus Activists' Capture and Representation of Protests	117
---	-----

Section III

The Formation of Counter/Publics

ANDREW GROSS

Vaccination, Inoculation, and Franklin's Grief 137

FERDINAND NYBERG

Spacing Out: Temperance, Threat, and Alcoholic Space in Antebellum
America 159

ANTJE DALLMANN

Publicizing Medicine: Medical Humor, Medical Professionalism, and Scientific Racism in Henry Clay Lewis's
Odd Leaves from the Life of a Louisiana Swamp Doctor 175

MISCHA HONECK

The Senator and His Satirist: Carl Schurz, Thomas Nast, and the Ethnicization of Political Humor 191

Section IV

Prison Publics

JAYNE THOMPSON

How to Listen: Collecting the Voices of Incarcerated Women 209

KRISTINA GRAAFF

Navigating (Black) Public (Counter) Spheres:
Black Popular Fiction and the US System of Mass Incarceration 221

LEE A. FLAMAND

Articulating Counter/Publics and Re-Assembling History:
Ava DuVernay's 13th 237

Section V

Media/Publics

MARTIN LÜTHE

Media(ted) Publics in the Progressive Era and the Telegraphic Fictions of Lightning Flashes and Electric Dashes 251

KATHERINE G. LACSON

The Manileña Marked Woman 263

MICHAEL CONNORS JACKMAN
The Horizons of a Queer Counterpublic:
Intended Audience in Sexual Liberation Activism279

VIOLA HUANG
The Black Power Movement in Documentary Films:
The Tensions between Public and Counterpublic History295

Section VI
Literary and Popular Counter/Publics

ELISABETH BRONFEN
The Mimicry of Care: Strategies of Sentimentalism
in Homeland and *House of Cards*313

MARIA SULIMMA
“Sir, she can hear you”: The Mute White Woman as Cinematic
Meditation on Gender, Communication, and Heterosexual Romance325

STEPHAN KUHL
The Private Sphere of the Text:
Emily Dickinson’s Literary Practice and Her Public343

CHRISTINA MEYER
Middlebrow Publics? Reading Gender in the Serial Press, 1910-1930 ...359

Section VII
The Public Humanities

PHILIPP LÖFFLER
Consequences of Academic Reading?
Professionalism, Critique, and the Public Humanities379

ANTJE KLEY
Public Humanities and Literary Knowledge:
Four Theses on How Reading Matters for Public Debate397

Contributors409