

Table of Contents

Anne-Julia Zwierlein
Introduction: Cultures of Lecturing in the Long Nineteenth Century	1
Oral Performances: Lecturing, Public Speaking, Reciting	1
Women’s Incursion onto Print and Speech Platforms	2
Anthology Volumes:
(1) Practices of Oral Performance ; (2) Women and Public Speech	4
Acknowledgements	8
A Note on Annotation	9
List of Works Cited	9

Section 1

The Art of Public Speaking

I.	Edward William Cox
	“Public Speaking” – The Arts of Writing, Reading and Speaking (1863)	15
II.	Anon.
	“Institutes for Working Men” – The Quarterly Review (1863)	18
III.	William Stewart Ross
	“On Public Speaking” – A System of Elocution, Based upon Grammatical Analysis (1869)	21
IV.	Samuel Orchart Beeton
	“Introduction” – Beeton’s Art of Public Speaking (1882)	28
V.	William Ogden
	“Observations on Public Speaking and Writing for the Press” – Odds and Ends (1894)	33
VI.	Alfred H. Miles
	“On Public Speaking” – The New Standard Elocutionist (1895)	35
VII.	R. F. Brewer
	“Speech-Making” – Voice, Speech, and Gesture (1897)	40
VIII.	Andrew Wilson
	“My First Lecture” – Some Reminiscences of a Lecturer (1898)	44
IX.	William Angus Knight
	On the Art of Public Speaking and Reading (1907)	47
X.	G. E. O’Dell
	“On Keeping Your Head Up”; “On the Way of Saying Things” – Public Speaking and Chairmanship: A Book for Propagandists (1911)	53
XI.	Lucy Davy Bell
	“Short Summary of Advice with Certain Maxims” – The Art of Public Speaking (1923)	58

Section 2

Speaking Techniques and Voice Production

I.	Henry Marston “Elocution Considered as an Art” – Penny Readings in Prose and Verse (1865)	63
II.	Charles John Plumptre “Lecture I”; “Lecture II” – King’s College Lectures on Elocution (1881)	67
III.	William Russell Orthophony, or Vocal Culture (1882)	75
IV.	Samuel Orchard Beeton “Voice”; “Preservation of Voice” – The Art of Public Speaking (1886)	79
V.	J. E. Carpenter “Useful Hints” – The Popular Elocutionist and Reciter (1887)	81
VI.	Mr Hartley “Elocution” (Advertisement) (1889)	85
VII.	John Forsyth “The Principles of Elocution” – The Practical Elocutionist (1895)	86
VIII.	R. F. Brewer “Modulation;” “Force and Energy” – Voice, Speech, and Gesture (1897)	90
IX.	Strachan Holme “Elocution” – Elocution: A Manual for Classes and Students, with Rules and Examples (1898)	92
X.	Arthur Symons “The Speaking of Verse.” – Plays, Acting, and Music: A Book of Theory (1909)	96
XI.	G. E. O’Dell “On Health, Church-Going, and the Uses of the Elocutionist” – Public Speaking and Chairmanship : A Book for Propagandists (1911)	100
XII.	Lucy Davy Bell “Audibility;” “Inaudibility;” “Indistinctness;” “Inflection of Voice;” “Throat;” “Voice, Improvement of;” “Magnetism of;” “Voice Production” – The Public Speaker’s Dictionary and Book of Reference (1929)	103

Section 3

Gesture and Attitude

I.	Alexander Melville Bell “Gesture. Attitude, Motion, Grace, Expressiveness” – Bell’s Standard Elocutionist (1860)	107
----	--	-----

CONTENTS

vii

II.	Edward William Cox “Delivery” – The Arts of Writing, Reading and Speaking (1863)	109
III.	William Stewart Ross “Introduction” – A System of Elocution, Based upon Grammatical Analysis (1869)	113
IV.	Samuel Orchard Beeton “Different Modes of Delivering a Discourse” – Beeton’s Art of Public Speaking (1882)	115
V.	J. E. Carpenter “On Gesture” – The Popular Elocutionist and Reciter (1887)	122
VI.	John Forsyth “The Theory of Gesture” – The Practical Elocutionist (1895)	126
VII.	Alfred H. Miles “On Deportment;” “On Action” - The New Standard Elocutionist (1895)	132
VIII.	R. F. Brewer “Delivery” – Voice, Speech, and Gesture (1897)	137
IX.	Henry Neville “Gesture: Introduction” – Voice, Speech, and Gesture (1897)	139
X.	Strachan Holme “Gesture and Expression” – Elocution: A Manual for Classes and Students, with Rules and Examples (1898)	141
XI.	Lucy Davy Bell “Elocution;” “Gesture” – The Public Speaker’s Dictionary and Book of Reference (1929)	144

Section 4

Relationship with the Audience

I.	Edward William Cox “The Oratory of the Platform” – The Arts of Writing, Reading and Speaking (1863)	147
II.	John Palmer “Penny Readings: Encores; The Seats.” – Parochial Entertainments (1878)	154
III.	James L. Hughes “Characteristics of the Teacher Essential in Securing and Retaining Attention;” “General Suggestions” – How to Secure and Attain Attention (1882)	157
IV.	Samuel Orchard Beeton “Audience;” “The Effect of the Audience on the Speaker” – The Art of Public Speaking (1886)	160
V.	Alfred H. Miles “General Remarks” – The New Standard Elocutionist (1895)	164

VI.	Andrew Wilson
	“Lecturers and Audiences”; “The Popular Lecture and Public Education”
	– Some Reminiscences of a Lecturer (1898)	165
VII.	G. E. O’Dell
	“On the Importance of the Audience” – Public Speaking and
	Chairmanship: A Book for Propagandists (1911)	173
VIII.	Lucy Davy Bell
	“Some Notes on the Psychology of the Crowd: Also of the Speaker”
	– The Art of Public Speaking (1923)	176
IX.	Lucy Davy Bell
	“Audience;” “Interruptions;” “Open Air Meetings;” “Outdoor Speaking;” “Types of Audiences” – The Public Speaker’s Dictionary
	and Book of Reference (1929)	180

Section 5

Chairmanship

I.	John Palmer
	“Penny Readings: The Chairman; Maintenance of Order” – Parochial
	Entertainments (1878)	185
II.	Samuel Orchart Beeton
	“Debating Societies;” “Rules of Debating Societies” – The Art of Public
	Speaking (1882)	187
III.	Andrew Wilson
	“Chiefly about Chairmen” – Some Reminiscences of a Lecturer (1898)	190
IV.	G. E. O’Dell
	“On Ruling a Meeting;” “Out of Doors;” “At a Public Meeting”
	– Public Speaking and Chairmanship: A Book for Propagandists (1911)	192
V.	Lucy Davy Bell
	“Chairmanship: Courtesy and Common Sense.” – The Art of Public
	Speaking (1923)	197
VI.	Lucy Davy Bell
	“Announcements;” “Introduction;” “Irrelevance.” – The Public
	Speaker’s Dictionary and Book of Reference (1929)	201

Section 6

Managing Lectures and Lecture Tours

I.	W. N.
	“Lectures. Art. IV [Mechanics Institutions]” – Westminster
	Review (1844)	205

II.	Adam Scott “Of the Lectures Hitherto Delivered”; “On the Lectures” – The London Institution as it Has Been; and as it Ought to Be (1854)	207
III.	George Jennings Davies “Secular Lectures” – Papers on Preaching and Public Speaking (1861)	211
IV.	Anon. “How They Manage Their Lectures in England” – Putnam’s Monthly Magazine (1869)	217
V.	A Mere Phantom (pseud.) “The Magic Lantern: How to Buy it;” “The Phantasmagoria Lantern: How to Use it;” “General Precautions for Use of Slides;” “Dissolving Views” – The Magic Lantern (1874)	229
VI.	J. G. Wood “Lecturing in America” – Leisure Hour (1886)	234
VII.	Andrew Wilson “About Audiences and Some of Their Little Ways” – Some Reminiscences of a Lecturer (1898)	241
VIII.	John Taylor “Popular Lectures by John Taylor” (Advertisement) (1898)	245

Section 7

Public Reading and Reciting

I.	Alexander Melville Bell “Miscellaneous Directions for Reading”; “Miscellaneous Directions for Recitation” – Bell’s Standard Elocutionist (1860)	253
II.	Edward William Cox “Exercises in Reading” – The Arts of Writing, Reading and Speaking (1863)	255
III.	G. H. “A Few Hints on Reading” – A Few Words on Penny Readings (1864)	257
IV.	‘Editor’ (Correspondence) “Notices to Correspondents: W. R.” – The London Reader (1888)	260
V.	‘Editor’ (Correspondence) “Notices to Correspondents: H. H. Lynton” – Bow Bells (1890)	261
VI.	Frederick Harrison “On Reading”; “How to Prepare and Deliver a Recitation” – A Primer of Elocution in Recitation and Song (1896)	262
VII.	G. B. Burgin “How Authors Learn to Lecture” – The Idler (1896)	265
VIII.	Clifford Harrison “Reciting and Recitative” – Voice, Speech, and Gesture (1897)	273

- IX. Lucy Davy Bell
 “Recitations” – The Public Speaker’s Dictionary and Book of Reference (1929) 279

Section 8

Penny Readings

- I. Charles Sulley
 “Why the Readings were Begun at Ipswich”; “Hints to Managers and Readers”; “Concluding Remarks.” – Penny Readings in Ipswich and Elsewhere (1861) 283
- II. James Fleming
Bath Penny Reading: Their Origin and Progress (1862) 289
- III. J. E. Carpenter
 “Origin and Progress of the ‘Penny Reading’ Movement” – Popular Readings in Prose and Verse (1865) 299
- IV. Thomas Wright
 “About Penny Readings” – Some Habits and Customs of the Working Classes (1867) 303
- V. John Palmer
 “Penny Readings: The Programme; Length of the Readings; Naturalness in Reading; Introduction to the Readings and Songs.” – Parochial Entertainments (1878) 311
- VI. C.L.
 “Penny Readings and Winter Entertainments” – The Englishwoman’s Domestic Magazine (1878) 314
- VII. Samuel Taylor
 “Penny Readings” – Records of an Active Life (1886) 318

Section 9

Humorous and Satirical Approaches

- I. Edward Draper
 “Taking the Chair” – The Train (1856) 323
- II. Edward Draper
 “The Satirical Lecture” – The Train (1857) 326
- III. Charles Dickens
 “The Uncommercial Traveller” – All the Year Round (1863) 330
- IV. James Pitt
Our Penny Readings (1867) 332

CONTENTS

xi

V.	[Percy Fitzgerald] “A Penny Reading at Mopetown” – All the Year Round (1871)	337
VI.	Anon. “Some Account of a Journey Through Londonshire and Its Environs, Undertaken at the Desire of the Grandsons of Corinthian Tom and Jerry Hawthorne of Somersetshire Esquires. By a One-Eyed Philosopher of Terrible Experiences” – Judy (1874)	344
VII.	Anon. “An Unemotional Man” – Bow Bells (1878)	348
VIII.	Anon. “Crackbrain Chronicles No. VI: The Rigmarole of the Reverend Gent” – Judy (1878)	350
IX.	John W. Overton “ Mary Ormond, Trade Unionist : Chapter XV. The Curtain Falls” – The Women’s Union Journal (1882)	352
X.	Anon. “Biffin Gives a Lecture” – Judy (1882)	354
XI.	Anon. “Anecdotes, &c.” – Bow Bells (1887)	357
XII.	C. H. L. “The Comedian’s Ruse” – Bow Bells (1891)	359
XIII.	A. Lance “Getting the Better of a Schoolboy” – Bow Bells (1892)	361
XIV.	Anon. “Sayings and Doings: Witty and Humorous. A Newspaper Puff” – Bow Bells (1872)	362
XV.	Anon. “Facetiae. A Pretentious Person” – The London Reader (1882)	363